PART- B

1.4.2- Feedback process of the Institution may be classified as follows.

B. Feedback collected, analyzed and action has been taken

Feedback is a tool that can help teachers to evaluate and reform their work. Feedback builds self awareness. Feedback plays a crucial role in education and learning by helping them to adopt new knowledge and to reduce repetitive mistakes. Feedback keeps everyone on track. It promotes personal and professional growth. Through feedback faculty analyze themselves and think best possible solution to perform better. It provides positive criticism and allows to see what everyone can change to improve their focus and result.

It is an important component of effective teaching-learning process. It encourages team-members to complete goals and objectives. Feedback helps principal for better understanding the strength and weakness of their academic staff. The purpose of feedback in the assessment and learning process is to improve their teaching abilities.
